The UXI RSD PATHWAY

The journey starts here! The objective of the RSD PATHWAY is to develop the love for sport in all communities, races and cultures. We strive to develop motor-skills, safety techniques as well as life skills, which form the base for all sport men and woman. Our primary goal is the comprehensive development of the learner within the sport milieu. We encourage camaraderie amongst the players as this is one of the most influential and significant assets of team sport and particularly rugby.

The four key principles underlying the RSD PATHWAY;

1. Equal grounds - The RSD PATHWAY provide an opportunity for participants from all communities, races and cultures to get involved in rugby development	2. The RSD PATHWAY is player orientated - Each aspect of the PATHWAY is linked to the capacities of participants at certain stages.	3. The RSD PATHWAY is long-term - Children from age 3 are developed and conditioned	4. Integration and alignment - Through the RSD PATHWAY, children can follow a route into the UXI rugby structures.
--	---	---	--

The RSD PATHWAY is not intended to be the production of world class rugby players, but rather an integrated series of levels and stages to assist the children and youth in developing their full potential according to their specific ability.
